Control dispute

We challenge you to see disputes about penalties or red cards in a whole new way. Club administrators have 24 hours post-match to raise the dispute, describe it with 100 words and set it against the exact time of the match. Our platform automatically notifies the referee committee of your association and each member can see the situation on his/her smartphone or computer online and make their own decision as to the consequences. From now on, all situations like this are stored and easy to access for all relevant members.

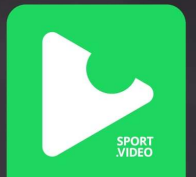

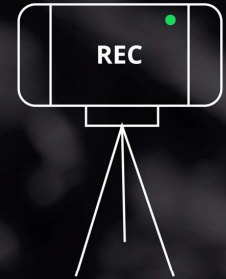

Easy technical solution

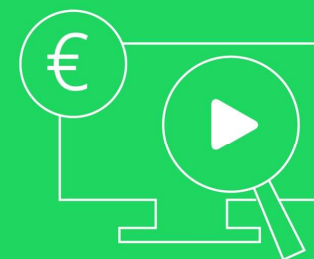

One match, one man and one smartphone. No more DVD deliveries to the opponents. Our solution set-up time can get up and off the ground less than two minute before the match strats.

No proffesional recording staff - your camera man gets a % share of the revenue from match views. You don't need to pay him. He gets % from the revenue.

Why do we use human instead of automatic system? Well, sport is all about emotions. You know this, your community does too. Machines have no emotions. People do. Our camera guys are crucial to our community. They're often some of the biggest club fans, and are as passionate as we are about changing the rules of wealth distribution in sport.

Simple legal solution

With our cutting edge legal support, we make your association and its member's lives easy. You don't need to take care about long-winded, complex legal models for your leagues. We use simple contracts (and its amendments) that are distributed to your members. A simple click is all that's needed to agree to the conditions. You are the owner of content with those who created it and you are receiver of the benefits.

JOIN TODAY

Our commitment is to bring respect and success to all athletes. Professional or amateur, we want to see wealth shared in a new, fairer way. Right now, a handful of superclubs and players are holding all the money in the industry. Enthusiastic athletes continue to train hard, perform on the pitch, but never get the chance to be paid. Most of the amateur clubs have problems to cover their basic costs.

Let's change this together.

Share passion.
Share success.
